Guidelines for Checking Session Minutes

Introduction

Welcome to the office of Clerk of Session! You have joined a unique and important group of people in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The Book of Order mandates that each governing body of the PC(USA) has a moderator and a clerk (G-3.0104). The clerks of Presbyteries, Synods, and the General Assembly are called Stated Clerks. Those serving Sessions are called Clerks of Session.

As Clerk, you will record a good deal of the history of your church as you write the session minutes. Future generations will learn what your church did to further Christ's mission in the world by reading the minutes you write. It follows then, that it is important that you keep accurate records of all the proceedings in session meetings and in congregational meetings.

This manual has been prepared to provide Clerks of Session with information and examples to assist them in their work and to insure that they have easily accessible information about what must be included in the session record books.

This manual was prepared by the Committee on Session Records of the Presbytery of the Western Reserve, drawing on information in the Book of Order and Robert's Rules of Order. It was adapted somewhat to be consistent with policies of Foothills Presbytery.

If you have any questions, or need assistance, please contact the Governing Body Team of Foothills Presbytery or the Stated Clerk at 864-288-5774..

March 2013

The Office of Clerk of Session

The Clerk of Session shall be an elder elected by the session for such term as it may determine (G-3.0104). The clerk may be a member of the session or may be an inactive elder. If the clerk is not a member of session, he/she may not make motions nor vote. Session may ask the clerk to be its parliamentarian and shall give the clerk voice in matters pertaining to the minutes and the clerk's report.

The person chosen to be clerk of session needs to be knowledgeable about session responsibilities, to have an understanding of Presbyterian polity, and be willing to learn basic parliamentary procedure. He/she must be able to write a clear record of the proceedings at session and congregational meetings promptly following the meeting.

When the pastor or elders need a strong lay leader, the clerk of session is the "first among equals." This responsibility flows to the clerk not because of any explicit statement in the Book of Order, but because the officer who receives the correspondence, keeps the records, and routinely discusses the work of the session with the pastor and all of the committee chairpersons to form the agenda and refer business, is the officer to whom they would take a problem. Presbyterian polity does not provide for any other lay officer to carry out these responsibilities.

In spite of the fact that the core functions of the clerk are secretarial, the session, in electing a clerk should seriously consider the qualifications needed to carry out the very significant "silent" function of being the senior lay officer of the congregation.

Responsibilities at a Glance

1. Keep a full and accurate record of the proceedings of the session (G-3.0107).
2. Keep the roll of session membership and attendance (G-3.0104).
3. Arrange for the careful preservation of session records (G-3.0104), making recommendation to the session for the permanent safe-keeping of its records (G-3.0107).

7. Be familiar with the responsibilities of the session as described in the Book of Order (G-33.0201).
8. Notify the session or congregation of special meetings, describing accurately the business that will be transacted. [Adequate public notice, as determined by rule, of all congregational meetings and special session meetings shall be given (G-10502 & G-3.0203).]

Guidelines sheet for this review is available at the end of this document.

permanent session minute book. – see Congregational and Corporation Meetings section.

(Session meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, except when it is in contradiction to the Constitution of the PC(USA) (G-3.0105). Copies of Robert's Rules of Order and the latest Book of Order should be available at meetings.)

Nuts & Bolts of Session Minutes

The method of recording session minutes is somewhat dependent on local circumstances. The following is the suggested procedure used by the majority of churches: (For sample minutes, see Appendix B.)

- Clerk takes notes for the minutes at the meeting.
- Clerk writes the minutes and types or arranges for them to be typed.
- Makes copies and distributes before the next meeting.
- Note whether minutes of the previous meeting are either approved as distributed, or approved as corrected. The corrections themselves should be made in the previous minutes being correct, and not further described in the minutes of the current meeting at which they are approved.
- Clerk prints or arranges for someone to type approved minutes in the session permanent minute book (these may be photocopied as long as archival quality paper is used).
- If using a computer for minutes in the permanent minute book, a laser printer and archival quality paper must be used.
- If you wish, 200-250 pages may be professionally bound into volumes. This can be done by the Presbyterian Department of history at a reasonable cost (215) 627-1852.

Do not use erasures, whiteout, interlineations or footnotes; or insert in the records separate sheets of paper with written or printed matter on them.

The records of each session meeting are to be duly attested (signed in ink) by the clerk or the moderator. The records of congregational meetings are to be attested by the clerk AND the moderator.

The minutes of congregational meetings, the annual report of the church treasurer or treasurers, and the annual statistical report required by General Assembly are to be included. These are to be typed or photocopied into the permanent record book and not included as inserts.

Congregational and Corporation Meetings

Minutes of all congregational and congregational and corporation meetings shall be included in the session record book along with session minutes in one chronological order.

Minutes of these meetings shall include:

1. Indication of whether the meeting is “regular” or “special”
2. If it is a “special meeting,” the minutes shall include the call to the meeting, which will serve as the agenda.
3. Name of the church.
4. Date, time and place of the meeting
5. Name of the moderator or presiding officer
6. Presence of a quorum
7. Opening and closing of the meeting with prayer.
8. Record of all actions, whether adopted or list.
9. When applicable, action by the congregation on any change in each pastor’s compensation with terms of call specified.

 - iii. provide the complete, itemized proposed budget adopted by the session for the coming year.
 - iv. details of the status of loans from General Assembly, Synod, or Presbytery, if any are outstanding.
11. If the congregation does not approve the minutes before adjournment, session may approve the minutes at its next scheduled meeting.

Congregational meeting minutes must be attested (signed in ink) by the moderator and the clerk.

Corporation meeting minutes must be signed by the one presiding and the secretary.

A Full Financial Review

The "Form of Government" of the Presbyterian Church requires the following: "A full financial review of all books and records relating to finances once each year by a public accountant or public accounting firm or a committee of members versed in accounting procedures. Such auditors should not be related to the treasurer (or treasurers). Terminology in this section is meant to provide general guidance and is not intended to require or not require specific audit procedures or practices as understood within the professional accounting community." (G-10.0401d)

Therefore, a financial review is required for every church organization or group which has a treasury, and which receives and disburses funds. Groups within the local church whose financial transactions must be reviewed might include the General Operating fund, Benevolence Fund, Memorial Fund, Wills and Endowments, Board of Deacons, Board of Trustees, Building/Maintenance Fund, Choir, Youth, Church School, Women's Association etc. This review benefits the treasurers, the contributors and those who benefit from expenditures...giving assurance that donations are used as the donor intended, for the benefit of the specific group, and as a witness to the Lordship of Christ.

The persons making the full financial review do not need to be CPAs, but there should be some understanding of accounting procedures. Look for persons who have been Trustees or who have some experience in business accounting. Remember that those doing the financial review must not be related to the Treasurer(s).

To be available for review are financial ledgers, records of all forms of income, deposit slips and bank account records, withdrawal slips and canceled checks, authorization of payments, copies of invoices and expense vouchers, and a balance sheet. Financial records from relatively small groups would require less validation, but it is important that each report a Beginning Balance, Income, Expenses, and a Closing Balance.

Unless a congregation and its income/expenses are very large, it is not necessary to have a professional audit made. A full financial review implies that the financial review committee has checked through the records, has spot-checked those records and (hopefully) has approved them, and (if helpful) has made suggestions for improvement to the Treasurer or Finance Committee. The report of the financial review committee must be approved by the Session. Trustees or whichever body has created the committee, and this approval must be recorded in the official minutes of that body.

This report may be a simple statement such as: "We have reviewed the financial statement of the various Funds of _____ Church and affiliated organization for the year ending December 31, _____, as set forth in the _____ Annual Report of _____ Church. During the course of our review, nothing came to our attention that would require modification of these financial statements."
