Gathering & Approaching God in Worship

Welcome, Announcements, & Opening Prayer

Song My Heart Is Filled With Thankfulness

Verse 1:

My heart is filled with thankfulness/ To Him who bore my pain;/ Who plumbed the depths of my disgrace
And gave me life again;/ Who crushed my curse of sinfulness/ And clothed me in His light
And wrote His law of righteousness/ With pow'r upon my heart.

Verse 2:

My heart is filled with thankfulness/ To Him who walks beside;/ Who floods my weaknesses with strength?
And causes fears to fly;/ Whose every promise is enough/ For every step I take,/ Sustaining me with arms of love/ And crowning me with grace.

Verse 3:

My heart is filled with thankfulness/ To him who reigns above,/ Whose wisdom is my perfect peace,
Whose every thought is love./ For every day I have on earth/ Is given by the King;/ So I will give my life, my all,/ To love and follow him.

Song We Must Remember

Chorus:

We must remember/ That you have forgotten/ And you don't remember our sins anymore
And we must remember/ That you have forgotten/ And you, you died once and for all

Verse 1:

You are the God that bore our shame/ You are the taker of our pain/ And we know that You are, yes
You are/ The one true life we need

Verse 2:

You are the pure and spotless Lamb/ You are the only great I Am/ And we know that You are, yes
You are/ The God of the redeemed

Bridge:

The power of Your blood is all that we need/ You laid down Your life and the captives were free
The veil was torn and there was victory/ We must remember, we must remember
That You've forgotten, yes you've forgotten/ We must remember, there is victory
There is victory/ There is victory/ There is victory

Listening to God's Word

Scripture Lesson: Jeremiah 31:31-34

³¹The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ³²It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband,^[a] says the LORD. ³³But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ³⁴No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

I Give Myself Away

Chorus:

I give myself away/ I give myself away/ So You can use me/ I give myself away/ I give myself away/ So You can use me

Verse 1:

Here I am/ Here I stand/ Lord, my life is in your hands/ Lord, I'm longing to see/ Your desires revealed in me

Verse 2:

Take my heart/ Take my life/ As a living sacrifice/ All my dreams all my plans/ Lord I place them in your hands

Bridge:

My life is not my own/ To you I belong/ I give myself, I give myself to you

Offering & Prayers for the World (& Lord's Prayer, contemporary version)

Our Father, who is in heaven, holy is your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, and deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Verse 2:

Beautiful Saviour/ You have brought me here/ You pulled me from the ashes/ You have broken every curse Blessed Redeemer/ You have set this captive free/ Lord I can't help but sing

Help Needed with Worship Services: GPC is looking for volunteers who want to join an ongoing team that will form the core group who works with the audio-visual process of the livestream during Sunday morning and evening worship services. The people already participating will be happy to train you, and all you have to do is learn the user-friendly system. In addition, the volunteer will switch camera views during certain parts of the service for our livestreaming. It's all very easy, and yet vitally important to our expanding Internet presence. Please consider volunteering, and if you are interested you can contact the church office at communications@germantownpres.org.

GPC's Easter Egg Hunt is on – scheduled for Palm Sunday, March 28! We need the congregation's help to gather enough candy. Please bring individually wrapped candy (no chocolate please) to the Activity Center lobby by Sunday, March 21. Remember, the candy has to be small enough to fit in a plastic egg. If you are interested in volunteering with this event, please contact Susan Lipscomb at slipscomb6@gmail.com.

At Eastertide, it is a tradition to decorate the church with Easter lilies given in memory or honor of loved ones. If you would like to take part in this tradition, please fill out an envelope located on tables in the AC lobby, the AC itself, and/or the Welcome Center and put it in the offering plate or return it to the church office by Monday, March 29. Donations in any amount are welcome. Please write Easter Flowers in the check memo line. Or you can make your dedication and donation online by clicking here.

The flowering cross is found in Christian art as early as the sixth century and is based on a legend that says that the cross itself burst into bloom at the moment that Jesus died. The legend of the True Cross describes how the wood of the cross came from a tree that sprang from a seed taken from the Tree of Life in the Garden of Eden.

In spite of its function as a brutal form of execution, the cross stands at the center of our faith as a symbol of life. There can be no Easter without Good Friday, no Resurrection without the Crucifixion. Indeed, the cross, rather than the empty tomb, has held the place of honor as the primary symbol of the Christian faith.

A modern expression of this idea may be found in the custom of flowering the cross. On Easter morning, flowers are used to decorate a cross. So, on Easter Sunday, please bring flowers of any kind and place them on the cross in the church yard near the Arthur Road entry. Since it will be conveniently placed for access, this is a great opportunity for everyone - old, young, and in between - to participate and take photos of their families. Let our flowering cross demonstrate the beauty of God's creation, glorify Him, give thanks for His many blessings, and demonstrate the new life Christ's sacrifice upon the cross has given us.

UKirk Memphis is a ministry serving the campuses of Rhodes College, the University of Memphis, and beyond. UKirk is a nationwide campus ministry affiliated with the Presbyterian Church (USA) and in partnership with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. We seek to reach, love, and teach college students to be lifelong followers of Jesus Christ. In the season of COVID-19, we have pivoted from our normal in-person events to holding our weekly gatherings online for a time of fellowship, conversation, and prayer. We are holding some small socially distant gatherings outdoors, along with providing opportunities for one-on-one conversation with the campus minister. We have also sent care packages to our students as tangible reminders that they are loved! Although we are doing ministry differently this year, its importance in the spiritual lives of our students has not waivered, nor has our need for support from congregations and individuals.

We ask for your prayers for our students as they navigate life in this time. And if you feel called to donate financially, you can do so online at www.ukirkmemphis.com under the "Support Us" tab. There you can also sign up for our quarterly newsletter. If you would rather write a check, you can make it out to the Presbytery of the Mid-South with UKirk in the memo line and send to the Presbytery office at 449 Patterson St. Memphis, TN 38111. UKirk Memphis sends a big thank you to Germantown Presbyterian Church for their continued support of our ministry!

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

GPC Prayer Ministry - These times are filled with anxiety and unrest. We as a church want to pray for all our members. There are several ways to request prayer. The website has a prayer request link toward the bottom of the homepage page with praying hands graphic. We also have replenished the pew prayer cards. Just fill them out and put them in the offering plate. Another way is the email that church member Margaret Owens oversees. The address is margaretowens1@aol.com. Or you can also send a prayer request to the pastors at prayers@germantownpres.org. The pastors also pray over all confidential prayer requests. This is a great way for us to get renewed strength during these uncertain times.

GPC offers a Grief Support Ministry. The Grief Support Group isn't meeting together currently, but if you or someone you know needs to talk to someone, note your options below. Contact the church office (901-754-5195) or Stephanie Wall, Certified Grief Counselor, American Academy of Grief Counseling and Certified Grief Recovery Specialist, Grief Recovery Institute (901-494-7786) or Beth Brock (901-355-0262) or Linda Oakes (901-237-6566).

GPC family: please be assured that GPCKids, PEACE the Special Needs Ministry, and GPC Youth all follow the CDC/WHO COVID-19 guidelines to ensure the safety of our participants and our leaders as we resume meeting onsite.
